

Let's Get Together

Bringing Literacy Coaches and Media Specialists Together

District Organization

The diagram illustrates the organizational structure of a district, centered around a handshake. The roles are arranged in a hierarchy: Program Specialists and Media Director at the top level, connected by a horizontal double-headed arrow. Below them are Literacy Coaches and Media Specialists, each connected to the role above it by a vertical double-headed arrow.

Program
Specialists

Media Director

Literacy
Coaches

Media
Specialists

Roles & Responsibilities

AR/Reading
Counts

S
R
I

Classroom libraries

Ordering reading
materials

Promoting reading

Literacy
councils

Lexiles

Teaching
research skills

Print rich environments

Roles & Responsibilities

MEDIA	COACHES
Thematic/class sets	Classroom libraries
Joint effort to develop sets/libraries

Roles & Responsibilities

MEDIA	COACHES
Thematic/class sets	Classroom libraries
Joint effort to develop sets/libraries
AR/STAR	RC/SRI
Joint effort for assessment

Roles & Responsibilities

MEDIA	COACHES
Thematic/class sets	Classroom libraries
Joint effort to develop sets/libraries
AR/STAR	RC/SRI
Joint effort for assessment
MANAGER OF SPACE	SPACELESS
Sharing of media center

Roles & Responsibilities

MEDIA	COACHES
Thematic/class sets	Classroom libraries
Joint effort to develop sets/libraries
AR/STAR	RC/SRI
Joint effort for assessment
MANAGER OF SPACE	SPACELESS
Sharing of media center
PROMOTING READING	PROFESSIONAL D.
Coordinated efforts/Literacy initiative

Getting Together

August 04

2 Literacy
coaches (middle)

July 05

Program specialist
attended media
meeting.

Summer-classroom
libraries
workshop/teachers,
media, coaches

- Disagreement on classroom library

Spring 06

- First joint meeting
- Media on one side/coaches the other
- Nervous
- Led by program specialist

Fall 06

- Schools sat together
- Led by district directors (media & reading)
- Collaborative planning for agenda
- Planned for next joint meeting May 07

